

December 2022 Issue I

As 2022 comes to a close, this is the first edition of a Digital Data Flow (DDF) newsletter to highlight DDF-specific ongoing activities, key milestones, educational materials, and other DDF news and updates.

Evolution of Digital Data Flow

The below graphic shows the development and progress of TransCelerate BioPharma's Digital Data Flow Initiative and its major milestones.

Latest Update: Connectathon Results

Recently, TransCelerate held a Connectathon event, inviting stakeholders to test how well their applications aligned with the CDISC USDM and to evaluate the connectivity and interoperability of these applications with the SDR RI. Check out some of the results from the Connectathon event with selected submission videos here.

MYTH

It's going to be years before sponsors and vendors can use this solution.

FACT

Users can test the SDR-RI now with their own company or dummy data.
